

I can't believe the lobbyists are trying to get away with this. Traditional radio realizes that their product is becoming obsolete fast, and are grasping at straws to stay alive. You can't let them stop XM and Sirius from giving traffic and weather info to subscribers!!!